- Jonesport and Beals are working with partners in order to increase the communities' access to local-level data and information to help guide local decision-making.
- The work started with asking people in Jonesport and Beals what questions they have about the local economy.
- Then information was collected to help address these questions.

Now we're inviting you to say whether you think the information that's been collected about Community & Economic Development makes sense with what you know about your community.

A collaborative project of the Towns of Jonesport & Beals and
